of His Capture.Makes First Authentic Official Statement.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

NEW YORK, June 28.—It was learned late tonight that half a dozen detectives had been sent to the neighborhood of East 10th Street, between Madison and Patterson, on what was said by Inspector McCafferty, to be the best clue yet obtained as to the whereabouts of Leon Ling.

"We may have Leon in a few hours," said McCafferty. "It looks like the best information we have had since we began work on the case."

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

NEW YORK, June 28.—Inspector McCafferty, chief of the New York detective bureau, gave out tonight the first authentic statement on the murder of Elsie Sigel that has been made by the police since the discovery of the girl's body on June 18 in a trunk in the bedroom of Leon Ling.

"We shall catch the murderer," the inspector said. "Delay does not alter that, although it chafes us. The whole country is one vast rat trap, with every exit guarded."

"The girl was killed June 3, and we believe that Leon Ling is the man who did it, with Chung Sing, his roommate, as a possible accomplice. We have Chung Sing. From his room in Eighth Avenue, Leon Ling went straight to Washington, and there sent the 'don't worry' telegram signed 'Elsie' received on the night of the murder by the Sigel family."

"From Washington he returned to New York, and about midnight on June 3, took the body in a trunk to Newark, arriving there at 2 a.m. on June 10. We do not know how he took it. All available records have been searched, but there were many privately owned machines that keep no records."

"Unable to dispose of his trunk, Leon returned to New York with the body on the afternoon of June 10, and left it in his room. From that moment we lost all trace of him. As far as we know, he had no other possible accomplices than Chung Sing."

"No other murder that I can remember has attracted such widespread or such enthusiastic cooperation on the part of the police of other cities. All the forces of the country are working as one great machine. We have fifty men of our own in the cities of the East."

"The only possible ship on which Leon could have left the country is due to arrive in Yokohama on July 3, and he will be waiting. The man cannot get out of the country. If he is alive we shall catch him."

"All the Chinese laundries in the city which are associated with the case, in the name of individual managers, received notices today in Chinese from the inspectors warning employees that they must have nothing to do with white women except on laundry business on pain of dismissal."

"Evidence that Leon Ling, the converted Chinese, made more than one desperate effort to dispose of the body of Elsie Sigel after he had murdered it into a trunk in his room in Eighth Avenue, was brought to light last night."

"Chung Sing, his roommate, has established the fact that the murder was committed about noon on June 3. Witnesses now have been found by the police who declare that before Leon Ling tried to dispose of the body in Newark the following day, he first employed a large touring automobile in which he placed the trunk at 2 p.m. on June 3."

"From the Eighth Avenue house he rode with the trunk in the motor car to a laundry in Harlem, conducted by a friend of his, who, it was learned, is the Chinese High Treason Society, known as the Gao Gao Tong, of which Leon is also a member."

"With him he also had three suitcases in which it is believed were Elsie Sigel's belongings. He refused to keep the trunk, but did take the suit cases, and the police expect to obtain the trunk in the near future."

"The trunk was kept in this laundry until 11 o'clock at night, when Leon Ling is said to have employed a taxi-cab to take him and the trunk to Newark, a distance of about eighteen miles from Harlem. In Newark, he has already been discovered, the Chinese friend of Leon, who conducts a restaurant there, also refused to accept the trunk."

"The fact that this man and the Harlem laundry keeper refused to have anything to do with the trunk has led the police to believe they had knowledge of its whereabouts."

"Early in the morning of June 10 Leon employed a Newark hackman to bring him and the trunk back to New York. The police have additional evidence that Ling attempted to leave the trunk at several other places, but failed, and took it back to the room where the murder was committed, and where it was found more than a week later."

"These discoveries completely upset the police theory that Ling was the man who sent the telegram from Washington on June 10 to Elsie Sigel's parents in this city. But a Chinese did send that telegram from Washington, and this convinces the police that Leon Ling, who was seen in this vicinity on that date trying to dispose of the body, had at least one accomplice."

"Such crowds have been attracted to Chinatown and its restaurants and other resorts through the publicity given to the murder of Elsie Sigel that additional police have been detailed to that district."

"It is said that never before have the oriental eating-houses been so crowded, and most of the callers have been overheard discussing the murder mystery."

"Dealers in souvenirs also have done an enormous business, and additional sightseeing automobiles have been pressed into service."

"An echo of the crime was heard in Police Court yesterday, when Patrick O'Hara was arraigned on complaint of George Ching, a chop suey expert, who said O'Hara pretended to be an officer and accused him of being Leon Ling and promised not to arrest him on the payment of $25."

"The police are giving some attention to the theory already revived today that the missing man may not have killed Elsie Sigel, and that he was himself the victim of the same hand that killed the girl."

"This line of reasoning necessitates the rejection of the story, told by Chung Sing, who said he had seen Leon in the room over the Eighth Avenue

Officers of Telephone Company — City Offers Three Thousand Dollars Reward for Arrest of Guilty.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, June 28.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Three thousand dollars reward was offered tonight by the city for the person or persons guilty of last night's bomb outrage, when thirty persons were injured and damage in excess of $150,000 done. This is expected to bring in the Pinkertons, who will probably lead the perpetrator. A demand for the arrest of M. J. Boyle, business agent of the Electrical Workers' Union, was made today. Proof that the explosion was the result of dynamite and not gas, caused business men in the loop district to call on the police to put a stop to the bomb outrages.

"If you don't take these men back and put them to work you'll be sorry," Boyle is reported to have said in an interview with one of the officials of the company.

"At the time no attention was paid to the alleged threat, but it was recalled by the telephone officials after the explosion, where Miss Sigel's body lay. In considering the possibility that Leon was killed, it is regarded as probable that his body was placed in a trunk, as was the girl's, and this has drawn renewed attention. Fools have drawn renewed attention. Fools have drawn renewed attention. Fools have drawn renewed attention."

"If Leon is dead," said Police Inspector McCafferty today, "we have one of the men that killed him under arrest, and we can lay our hands on another in five minutes."

"A story that Elsie Sigel might have been murdered in Washington was reported having received. Fools have drawn renewed attention. Fools have drawn renewed attention. Fools have drawn renewed attention."

"The authorities were not inclined to place much credence in the letter."

"Ling" Near San Diego.
SAN DIEGO, June 28.—A Chinese suspected of being Leon Ling, accused of the murder of Elsie Sigel, was arrested at El Cajon, in this county, this afternoon. This evening Sheriff Jennings was notified by telephone by Constable Ruiz of El Cajon that he had a Chinese bearing a close resemblance to Ling. The prisoner had drifted into El Cajon and gave no explanation of his previous movements. The constable said he would bring the suspect to this city, but up to a late hour tonight had not arrived at the County Jail.Huntington Made Manager.
MINNEAPOLIS (Minn.) June 28.—George R. Huntington was today appointed general manager of the Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste. Marie Railroad, to succeed Edmund Pennington, who was elected president after the death of Thomas Lowry.

President Taft said he feared he could not direct the railroad. "Let 'Garry' have what he wants."

That accounts for Assistant Secretary Winthrop's statement that the Albany staff attend the celebration.

LAW UPHOLD.SUPREME COURT DENIES SOCIAL-ISTS' PETITION.

Tribunal Declares That the Statute Passed by the Last Legislature is Constitutional and Refuses Arguments Adduced Against It by Henry Hazlitt of San Francisco.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—The constitutionality of the direct primary law, enacted by the last Legislature, on March 28, 1936, was sustained today by the Supreme Court.

The Supreme Court justices unanimously concurred in an opinion, written by Justice W. O. Loring, denying the petition of the socialist party for a writ of mandamus to compel the election commissioners of this city and county to hold the August primaries under the primary law of 1936.

Every contention of the petitioners is answered in the opinion, which comprises 5000 words, and the validity of the new law is upheld at every point.

The concurrence of Justice Angellotti is contained in a separate opinion, in which he concurs in the judgment of his associates, but disagrees on one point, that respecting the right of a candidate to go before the people with more than one nomination to the same office at any election.

The majority of the court held this is denied by the terms of the act, but Justice Angellotti disagreed, maintaining a candidate should be allowed to secure as many nominations as he could, that being "the obvious intent of the law in allowing voters to write the name of any candidate they choose upon the ballot."

The petition was brought before the Supreme bench by Henry Hazlitt, county chairman of the Socialist party. The Election Commissioners and the County Registrar of Voters were named as defendants.

Six of the main points of contention were taken up by Justice Loring and presented at length with a full statement of the court's position.

The first point on which the law was attacked was that it did not comply with the constitutional provision that each act of the Legislature shall embrace but one subject, and be so contained in the title of the act. It was contended that the advisory vote on United States Senators constituted a separate enactment. The court briefly argued that this point was not well taken.

The second contention involved the charge that the act was "incomplete legislation, inasmuch as it did not sufficiently provide for elections not affiliated with recognized parties, or for the making of independent parties. The court held the Legislature was empowered to legislate further upon this subject."

The third point went to the provision of the act that protects municipalities, already supplied by charter with a primary election system from the making of a new system. It was contended that the act should apply to all or none. This contention was rejected, many citations being made to support the court's ruling.

The fourth point hinged upon the fees required from candidates on filing notices in newspapers. It being claimed that this was a violation of the non-property qualification clause of the Constitution.

To this point, that the making of affidavits by candidates conflicted with the constitutional provision that no oath other than the oath of office shall be administered, the court held that this applied only to those elected to office, not to candidates.

The sixth point questioned the provision that no defeated candidate shall be eligible for nomination to the same office at the same election.

The court reserved its opinion on this, holding the matter could involve the constitutionality of the entire act, and might be settled when a specific occasion for adjudication arises.

MARRIAGE FAILURE.
SPOKANE (Wash.) June 28.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Two months of wedded life was enough for Mrs. Mabel Brandes of Los Angeles, Cal., from whom a default decree of divorce was obtained here today by her husband, W. M. Brandes.

The Brandeses were married in Portland, Or., April 24, 1936, and eight weeks afterward the young wife passed her honeymoon at her parents' home in Spokane, but she had not been married without serving notice on her mate. Her husband pleaded with her to return to her home, but she had not, he testified. He even traveled to Los Angeles and begged a personal interview, which was also denied.

WRIGHTS DELAY THEIR FLIGHT.
Strong Wind Prevents Test of Airplane.
Thousands Wait in Vain to See Them Fly.
Seniors Sizzle Under Sun at Ft. Myer.
ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.
WASHINGTON, June 28.—Owing to a strong wind, the Wright brothers failed to make their expected airplane flight at Ft. Myer this afternoon. The Senate having concluded its debate on the tariff bill many members were present to witness a flight of the plane. These, together with several thousand others, waited in the hot sun on the fort drill grounds, but the Wrights decided that the wind was too strong, and too uncertain for a flight. The plane was not flown until the morning. Wright early today notified the Senate that he intended to make an airplane flight after 7 o'clock this morning. The field was cleared by a light breeze, and everything was ready for a flight. At 7 o'clock, a heavy storm cloud appeared, accompanied by a heavy rain. The rain was not a hindrance, but the wind was too strong, and the Wrights decided to postpone the flight until the morning. The plane was not flown until the morning. WANTED IN NEW YORK.
Passenger on Train Bound for Peru Arrested Yesterday at Redondo Beach.
Freston Le Bau, wanted in New York on a charge of robbery by the third degree, was arrested on board the Erna at Redondo Beach yesterday afternoon, a few minutes before the ship weighed anchor for Peru. A request came from the chief of detectives at New York, yesterday, that Le Bau be taken into custody. The New York officers stated that the much-wanted man would probably attempt to leave the country.
Detective Chapman learned that the Erna was in port and was about to leave for South America. The ship is a German tramp from San Francisco. He and Marshall Stanchfield of Redondo Beach found Le Bau's name in the passenger list and took him into custody. He was taken to the New York Electric Lamp Company of New York, where he is in connection with his work in that company that the forger charge has been filed.
FOUR SUITS FOR THREE.
Men Arrested on Charge of Having Stolen Clothing from a Main Street Store.
Charged with having stolen four suits from the store of M. Weisberg at No. 446 South Main street, last Friday night, James McFarland, Edmund Burnley and Joe Deady were arrested yesterday afternoon.
McFarland, according to the records in the detective office, was paroled from the penitentiary at San Quentin a short time ago, after having served part of a term for robbery. McFarland was convicted at that time of having stolen an automobile and then carried off a safe in the machine.
SEEKS SON'S SLAYER.
Multi-Millionaire Seeks Lawyer in Hope of Finding Him to Tell What He Knows.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]
NEW YORK, June 28.—Expectation that a new chapter in court records of the murder of Orange Perry Dexter would be opened by the testimony of his son, the Adirondack, five-year-old boy, would be speedily written, was negated today when injunction proceedings brought by Henry Dexter, multi-millionaire father of the murdered man, were adjourned in the Supreme Court here until July 25.
The elder Dexter had applied for an order directing John J. Badger, an attorney of the deceased, to show cause why he should not be restrained from disclosing or collecting dividends on 500 shares of American News Company stock which he had transferred to Badger. The complaint in the suit to recover possession of the securities alleged that the stock was given to Badger on the understanding that he possessed convincing evidence of the guilt of a person suspected of the murder.
Dexter claims that Badger gave no adequate return.
ASSAILANT OF WOMEN.
University station detectives are endeavoring to connect William Campbell with numerous attacks which have been made on young women in their district in the last year. The last one was on Miss Bertha Holmes, several weeks ago. Campbell was arrested Sunday night on West Jefferson street. His face was blackened with charcoal. He explained he did not wish his friends to know him if he encountered them. He says he is only 17 years of age, but the police believe he is older.
CRIME BRIEFS.
Dangerous, Bad Bill.
NEW YORK, June 28.—The local secret service has sent out warnings to bankers to watch for two dangerous counterfeiters. One is a bill purporting to have been issued by the National Union Bank of Baltimore, and the other is a counterfeit of a national note on the Germania Bank of San Francisco. Both bills are said to be very clever imitations.
Dies in Bathroom.
OAKLAND, June 28.—Dependency, caused by pain and lingering illness, resulted in Mrs. Charlotte Judell of No. 67 Seventh street committing suicide last night by a self-inflicted wound. She was 65 years of age, and carefully planned every detail of her death. She was found in her room, lying on a quilt, with a knife in her back. She was found by her husband, who called the police. The police found no other clues.
Crap Game Fatal.
RIPLEY (Okla.) June 28.—Two negroes were killed and five others wounded at a stone quarry near here last night, in a quarrel over a crap game. The shooting was general.
Caught in London.
LONDON, June 28.—A man who gives the name of Henry Clifford, but who is believed to be Conrad Harris, was remanded at Bow-street court today for one week. Harris was until recently an employee of J. S. Bach & Co. of New York, and he was being sought by the police on the charge of having forged drafts for nearly $5000 on the Swiss Bank, Zurich.
Avenge Murdered Husband.
NEW YORK, June 28.—In revenge for the alleged murder of her husband a year ago, Mrs. Louise La Barba today fired four bullets into Dominick Veronesi, fatally wounding him. Mrs. La Barba was arrested.
CHOLERA DECREASING.
ST. PETERSBURG, June 28.—The number of cholera cases reported during the last twenty-four hours shows a diminution. Sixty-nine cases were removed to hospitals. There were thirty deaths.
TAILOR BURNS TO DEATH.
JACKSONVILLE (Fla.) June 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Frank G. Dodge, one of Jacksonville's leading merchant tailors, was burned to death today by the explosion of gasoline, in which he was cleaning a pair of trousers. He had an invalid wife and two grown sons. Dodge was one of the few remaining men who witnessed the assassination of President Lincoln at Ford's Theater at Washington.

WASHINGTON BRIEFS.
Cotton on Free List.
WASHINGTON, June 28.—Southern Senators today ineffectually endeavored to take long staps or Egyptian turns on a bill to place on it a duty of 1 cent a pound, which Senator Bacon, the author of the amendment, declared was a revenue duty only. By a viva voce vote the amendment was rejected.
Angels in Clerk in Army.
WASHINGTON, June 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mary C. Fronton of Los Angeles was today appointed a clerk in the quartermaster's department of the army, at San Francisco.
Veetless Solons.
WASHINGTON, June 28.—Intense hot weather brought a variety of picnic clothing when Senators assembled today to take up the tariff bill. Vice-President Sherman was attired in white, and he used a big palm-leaf fan. Veetless were generally discarded by the Senators.
Name New Postmaster.
WASHINGTON, June 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Martin Smith has been appointed postmaster at Little Rock, Los Angeles county, vice L. W. Travers, resigned.
Herring Falls Down.
WASHINGTON, June 28.—A. M. Herring, the New York Congressman, today sent word to Gen. James Allen, the signal officer, that he would be unable to deliver a speech at the government by July 1, the time specified.
GIRLS SWIM IN FOUNTAIN.
Massachusetts Cemetery Adornment Utilized and Complaints Are Made to Police.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
CHICAGO (Mass.) June 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Complaint has been made to the police that the concrete basin of the big fountain in Fairview Cemetery is utilized as a swimming pool by girls of from 12 to 17 years old. The complainants aver that the girls affect a costume of extreme negligee, and in case of unexpected appearance of masculinity merely stir the mud at the bottom of the basin, thereby discoloring the water so that nature's outlines are hidden.
CHARLIE TAFT AN AUTOIST.
Youngest Son of President Appropriates Mother's Electric Runabout and Gives Friends Ride.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
WASHINGTON, June 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Charlie Taft, 11 years old, youngest son of the President, has appropriated his mother's electric runabout. Because of her indisposition, Mrs. Taft has not been able to run the machine lately, her only outings having been taken in one of the big White House touring cars. When Charlie returned from his school at Watertown, Ct., he looked about for something to interest a very active summer boy, and discovered the new machine. He has mastered its control and uses the electric daily. The young man has had several visitors of his own age recently, and takes them for drives about Washington, running the machine himself.

Scientist Wants Killing of Hazrah Ali by Chinese Investigated—Viceroy Sticks to Story.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
PEKING, June 28.—The members of the meteorological expedition under Lieut. Clark, a former officer of the American army, have arrived at Lan Chow, capital of the province in which the expedition had an encounter one week ago with natives, when Hazrah Ali was killed.
Lieut. Clark has telegraphed Peking, requesting a consular investigation. The Viceroy of Kan to province asserted that the members of the expedition attacked Chinese without provocation, killing one and wounding two. He therefore demands that the expedition be recalled, and offers to give it a safe escort.
At the British and American legations the Viceroy's version is doubted.

President of Trust Company of the Republic Under Fire on Witness Stand.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
SARATOGA (N. Y.) June 28.—Daniel Leroy Dresser, former president of the Trust Company of the Republic, today continued his testimony as the witness in the case of Charles H. Cavanaugh against the former directors of the company, to compel the restoration of moneys alleged to have been lost through financing the United States Ship Building Company.
The loans on the ship building securities, the witness said, were represented in the customary way to the Executive Committee.
Questioned as to a loan of $300,000 made on July 24, 1902, by the trust company to the witness, which was paid in October following, Dresser said there was no suggestion that such a loan was illegal. Counsel for Perry Belmont, another defendant, stated that Mr. Belmont left for Europe last December.

This image shows a vertical strip of a document page. The left side features a dark, textured binding material, likely leather or cloth, which appears worn and aged. A small, light-colored, triangular object is visible near the top of the binding. The right side of the strip is a lighter, possibly damaged or stained, area, which could be the edge of a page or a different material. The overall appearance is that of an old, weathered book or document.

Pacific Electric to Speed Fortune on Tracks.

Active as to his mission and any plans in his movements, H. E. Cooper, representing the Standard Oil Co. in the Southern and Union Trust Companies, spent the day in the yesterday looking into terminating shop conditions. He left last night for the home of the superintendent Averill's private car in Tucson and New Orleans.

As to the significance of his visit, broad officials disagree. "Financial investigation, preparatory to bond in Before doing so, the railroad is expected to put into effect the new terms of its first contract with the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America. The new contract with Pacific Electric will allow approximately $200,000 for reconstruction of the downtown Los Angeles streetcar line. This includes the reconstruction of the track on Aliso street between Hill and the Los Angeles River; the reconstruction of the street, between Figueroa and Hill; the reconstruction of Short Street, between Hill and the Los Angeles River; the reconstruction of Avenue 50 and Marmion Street, between Hill and the Los Angeles River; the reconstruction of Hill, between Fremont and Avenue 50.

The estimated cost of the project is $150,000 more than the amount allocated. The work will be done in the kind of order in this city and as fine as can be found anywhere in the world.

Aliso street rebuilding has been completed this week. The style of paving used was suggested by J. J. Bohl, assistant engineer of the Pacific Electric Railway. The piece of track on Sixteenth between Hill and Los Angeles will be torn up and other sections will be torn up between Pomona lines have been practically completed. The Huntington and Ana line is practically completed. The bus lines will not be ready for use for two but cars will temporarily be used across a "shoo-fly" span.

Santa Fe Improvements.
Santa Fe, beside the reconstruction of the line, is now rehabilitating under way on the line will spend $5000 for three South tracks at Cloria. The Santa Fe and the Northwestern Pacific are the only lines in this State, and a new line is to be built across the Russian River from these roads. The new line will span the river midway between Russian River Landing and the Russian River roundhouse. It will be built of concrete, contain 100-ton stalls, and be one of the modern buildings of the kind on a Pacific system.

Bridge Safe.
Pacific officials report all the bridge at Yuma from the 1906 fire has been passed. For a time a trestle was used to wait, but the central pier, caused by

Quality In Clothes for Men
QUALITY in Men's Clothes is something more than a matter of fabric. It's something more than correct style, too—more than tailoring or workmanship. Quality, from our point of view, is a combination of all these elements with individuality as a result. Real "Quality Clothes" are made from the best fabrics that they possess. They are perfectly adapted and most becoming to the individual who is to wear them. We make "Quality Clothes"—none else.

WARNING UP.
HOG KILLING STARTS FEUD.
Wholesale Slaughter? With One Boy Shot.
"King of Calabasas" Acts as an Executioner.
Henchman Is in Jail on a Serious Charge.
A frightful slaughter was reported yesterday from Calabasas, and Phillip Alastra is in the County Jail on a charge of assault to commit murder for shooting little Robert Chapman, 9 years old, in the head with a shotgun. A herd of over 200 hogs belonging to Chapman has been decimated by Joe Hunter with his trusty rifle. The only reason all the hogs are not dead is that Joe ran out of cartridges.
Incidentally Constable De La Monte is still alive, and it is alleged that he was saved whole by Hunter, who disarmed Alastra after he had de La Monte covered with a large six-shooter. Yesterday Alastra was held in $500 bail for examination next Friday before Justice Summerfield.
The indications are that a devastating feud has broken out between the Hunter clan and the Chapman family in Calabasas.
Joe Hunter and his brother, George, are looked up to as little kings by the Spanish population of that hook of the San Fernando Valley.
PREPARING THE FEUD.
This year the Hunters placed several thousand acres in grain and hired a great number of men. A few weeks ago this was cut and stacked, much of it along the boundary of the Chapman ranch.
The Chappmans, with old John Chapman as chief of the clan, sort of favors hogs on the side, although their best crop is wheat. The hill slopes "Don't," Anyway the hogs broke bounds on the Chapman ranch and wandered into the fat stacks of the Hunter grain. They didn't do a thing to those fine stacks, except scatter them over the landscape and eat the grain off the stalks.
Phillips, as one of the henchmen of the Hunters for Joe was in town—rounded up the hogs with a pitchfork and sent them squealing back to the Chapman boundaries.
It is asserted that the Chappmans turned them loose again and they made a bee-line for the grain and scattered them over the landscape.
Then Joe came home.
Joe didn't bother with the hogs. He made a straight cut for Old Man Chapman.
THREATS TO KILL.
"See here, John," remarked the "King of Calabasas," "you got those hogs out of my grain or I'll kill every one of them, and I've got the cartridges to do it with, too."
"Don't you do it, Joe," responded the chief of the Chapman clan. "Don't you do any shooting until I have a chance to see them."
"All right, John," replied Hunter, "but you sell 'em a-d quick."
The next day the hogs were in the grain again. The Hunters chased them out and atmosphere began to get charged.
Chapman set his little daughter and son, Robert Chapman, to tending the hogs, but the latter broke away from the youngsters and again got into the Hunter grain.
Then Phillips got busy with his pitchfork. He also carried with him his shotgun.
"The story of the prisoner is that as he was approaching the hogs, where they were rooting in the grain, a little Robert sitting on top of one stack, while his little sister was at the foot of the stack, he fired his shotgun and the shot was discharged, the load of shot peppering the face and head of the boy."
Phillips hurried to the lad, took him on his back and carried him to his home. There he was attended, and Phillips explained how it was an accident and expressed his sorrow at the boy's misfortune.
The next Sunday the hogs were again in the grain and Joe Hunter took down his shotgun and started on the warpath for pork.
DEAD PIGS THICK.
When he had fired his last cartridge dead pigs were thick among his grain stacks, and the balance on the jump for their home pens.
Then the Chappmans became angered. They had not made any complaint against the henchman of Hunter when he shot their boy, but this wholesale killing of hogs was drawing the line too fine.
They swore to a complaint against Phillips for assault to murder, and the warrant was placed in the hands of Constable De La Monte of Justice Summerfield's court.
In Calabasas De La Monte wandered in the wilderness and finally came to a low adobe home where he found a few hogs eating a big hog of "Dago red" to give up more moisture.
Joe Hunter happened along at the same time and greeted the constable.
"Who are you after?" he asked, genially.
Just at that moment De La Monte happened to spot his man, one of the five, who is known by his one eye, and has the reputation of being a "bad one."
"I'm after Alastra there," remarked the big officer, pointing at Phillips. Then he pulled out the warrant and began reading it.
STRAIGHT AT HIS HEART.
Intuition caused him to glance up and there was Phillips looking at him with one eye along the barrel of his heavy revolver, and the gun was pointed straight at the heart of the constable.
De La Monte never flinched. He read that warrant through to the end, but he made a swift motion with his head to Joe Hunter, and that saved his life.
Joe sprang forward, disarmed his follower, and told him to go along with the officer of the law. After that Phillips was the meekest man in the county and caused no further trouble.
When arraigned before Justice Summerfield yesterday Phillips was asked if he wanted an attorney to defend him.
"No, I'll wait for Mr. Hunter," he said. He seemed to think that if Joe Hunter would come to his rescue it would be all right.
Late yesterday afternoon Joe and George Hunter went to the County Jail and Phillips greeted them like a friend.
"We'll stand by you," asserted the "King of Calabasas." And the bets are that he will.

FIRE IN BOY'S EYES.
Roman Candle Explodes as Fourth-of-July Victim Holds It Before Face.
May Go Blind.
Antonio Encinas, 11 years of age, of No. 125 South Anderson street, is the first Fourth of July victim this year. He may lose the sight of both eyes as the result of an explosion of a Roman candle last night.
The little fellow had saved up a few pennies and bought fireworks. Contrary to the orders of his father, Joseph Encinas, the boy took a few Roman candles to the alley in the rear of the house and set them off. The fuse of the last one did not work readily. Antonio, lighted it and whirled the candle in the air expectantly. There was no shower of fire, punctuated by balls of gleaming red, blue and green.
Seeking to learn the reason of the failure, the boy held the business end of the candle in his face and blew on the fuse.
A shower of flame struck him as the first ball of fire exploded in his eyes. His screams attracted the attention of pedestrians, and he was removed to the Receiving Hospital. His eyes are terribly burned, his face seared, and his hair singed.

Uncle Sam Guards Leant of His Possessions.
Expensive Proceedings Over Old Shirt and Shoes.
Man to Be Tried for Buying Them from Soldier.
Complicated and expensive criminal proceedings involving the sale of a faded nannel shirt and a pair of dilapidated shoes would cause attorneys in the State courts to smile in derision, but no case is too small to escape the sharp eyes of Uncle Sam's legal watch dogs.
Frank Miller of Omaha was arrested by Deputy United States Marshal Place at San Diego yesterday upon an indictment charging him with having bought a shirt and pair of shoes from a soldier. The articles are appraised at $1.50, which is probably a liberal estimate. The law forbids the purchase of any article of clothing from one of the country's defenders without a permit.
In spite of the apparent pettiness of the alleged offense, the Federal officers, both here and at Omaha, are taking as much pains as though the case involved millions. Before Miller is returned to Nebraska the expenses of the proceedings may mount up into hundreds of dollars.
It is this relentless pursuit of criminals that makes the crooks fear prosecution in the Federal court as they never do in the State tribunals.
GOVERNMENT'S THEORY.
The theory of the government is that every offense committed against the statutes of the United States warrants prosecution. Men who have defrauded the government of a few dollars are dealt with as summarily as purloiners of thousands.
The government is always ready to put its splendid machinery in motion to convict even the smallest malefactor. The counterfeiter who makes a dozen bogus silver dollars is sought for with as much diligence as the gang that floods the country with counterfeit $20 gold pieces.
He returned to Los Angeles recently and his arrest followed.

CHARMING PRISONER DENIES SHE TRIED TO KILL.
In County Jail, After Arraignment at Long Beach, Mrs. Grundy States She Did Not Shoot at Alleged-Son-of-Millionaire Husband—Said Furnished Today.
"My idea of a jail have undergone a wonderful transformation," remarked Mrs. J. Russell Grundy, as she sat in the cheerful-looking, sunlit room of the matron at the County Jail yesterday afternoon. She had just returned from Long Beach, where she had been arraigned on a charge of having attempted to shoot her husband at his mother's home.
The little woman who caused such a stir in society circles in the beach city by her differences with her alleged-son-of-a-millionaire husband, looked just as though she had been on a quiet shopping tour.
"Matron Sheel is a darling," said Mrs. Grundy, with emphasis. "She has treated me just as kindly as a mother could. I will never, never forget her courtesy."
The charming prisoner asserted again that she did not try to shoot her husband and denied that she discharged a pistol when she called at the home of her mother-in-law to see Grundy, who is reported to have deserted her.
Miss P. S. Michelson is the wife's attorney. Yesterday she went to Long Beach to raise the $500 bail needed for her client, and in the evening stated she had arranged for a certified check.
"We have an absolutely clear case," remarked the bright woman lawyer. "No twelve specimens of American citizenship could be found to convict my client on such evidence as there is against her."
Yesterday afternoon Deputy Constable Hawkins of the beach city took Mrs. Grundy from the County Jail to that city for arraignment. No testimony was taken. Her examination was set for July 4.
"They jumped me out of here to the beach and back again, and that is all that was done in my case," said the prisoner.
The arraignment was unexpected and Miss Michelson only learned of it after it was over.
SCHOOL BONDS IN DEMAND.
Many Bidders for District Issues Amounting to More Than Hundred Thousand Dollars.
School district bonds of Los Angeles county are in strong demand, as shown by the number of proposals at the opening of bids on four issues disposed of by the Board of Supervisors yesterday. The bonds aggregate $103,500.
There were eleven bidders for the $25,000 of the Calabasas district, and they were awarded to the William R. Staats Company at a premium of $157.50.
The Huntington Park Union High School bonds for $55,000 had ten bidders, and went to the State Board of Examiners at a premium of 1908.
The American Savings Bank of Los Angeles was the successful bidder for the issue of $22,500 of the San Fernando district bonds at a premium of $47.50, while the Hudson district bonds of $16,000 went to the State Board of Examiners for a premium of $40.

COOL PROCEEDING.
LEGAL ECHO OF SUDDEN SPLASH.
OFFICER THROWN OFF YACHT. IS STORY TOLD.
Dr. Bell, Who, Last Year, Made Sensational Charge of Attempted Hold Up at Gun's Point in Hotel, and Who Sailed Away to Mexico, Arrested.
As an echo of the sensational charges made against Attorney O. P. Widaman and A. P. Sanger on April 24, 1908, Dr. Frank M. Bell was arrested late yesterday afternoon as he left the Superior Court, where he was defending, before Judge Henry, a suit of his mother-in-law to recover money advanced on a yacht.
The doctor was taken before Justice Ling and held on the charge of having thrown a deputy constable off his yacht, and also on a charge of perjury. Bell was fixed at $1000 in the first case, and at $5000 in the second.
The defendant was locked up.
For more than a year Detective Broome, one of the District Attorney's officers, has been investigating the perjury matter and the complaint was sworn to yesterday by Attorney Widaman. Constable Cochran, whose deputy he has been, was thrown off of the yacht Aloha, before Bell sailed out of San Pedro harbor, was the other complaint.
On April 24, 1908, Bell charged that Widaman and Sanger had tried to kill him. He told a sensational story of having been locked in a room at the Hollenbeck Hotel, while Attorney Widaman held a revolver to his head to induce him to sign away $100,000 worth of property. He also charged that he was having broken up his home.
But suddenly the doctor, whose yacht has been seen in a room at the hotel by H. A. Getz against E. C. Baker and Agnes S. Bell, wife of the defendant, went to San Pedro and when he found the deputy in possession of the boat, put him overboard. It is said, and sailed away to Mexico.
He returned to Los Angeles recently and his arrest followed.

QUIBLING.
WHO'S TO VOTE FIRST ON CONSOLIDATION?
LOS ANGELES and San Pedro will vote on consolidation August 12, but whether the election will precede or follow that for consolidation of Los Angeles and Wilmington is a question the City Council will determine today. An effort to settle it yesterday resulted only in two stormy sessions of the Council, in which the Los Angeles, San Pedro and Wilmington committees participated, and in which the discussion included personalities more or less bitter.
The Los Angeles Committee of Fifteen reported, through its chairman, Stoddard Jese, at the morning meeting that it favors giving the Wilmington election precedence. The committee advised that the Wilmington election be held August 4 and the San Pedro election August 12. The stated reason was that the committee believed success at Wilmington sure, and would aid the San Pedro consolidationists in their doubtful fight.
The San Pedro committee, composed of Dr. W. A. Weldon, E. D. Seward, Lewis Hays and John Anderson, opposed this program. Joseph H. Call speaking for San Pedro, declared the precedence of the Wilmington election would ruin the hope of carrying San Pedro, and that the programme reported by the Los Angeles committee was playing into the hands of the corporate interests that are opposing consolidation.
SCOTT CASTIGATES CALL.
For this animadversion on the Los Angeles committee, Call got a verbal castigation from Joseph Scott of the Los Angeles committee, when the afternoon session began. Scott declared the members of the Los Angeles committee had been moved to recommend precedence for Wilmington because, first, a legal question affecting the possible

Southern California Body in Annual Convention.

The code of professional ethics was passed by the Southern California Dental Association, opening in Los Angeles its annual convention, when it adopted resolutions recommending that Dr. A. H. Mayhew of Sacramento, president of the State Board of Dental Examiners, be removed from his position. A lively fight for Mayhew's removal is promised.
Hot shots were taken at Mayhew by Dr. E. D. Robinson of this city, who presented the resolutions and who preceded them with caustic remarks on the action of Mayhew at the last session of the Legislature.
Dr. Robinson asserted that Mayhew is incompetent as a member of the State board, and that he has neglected the duties of his office. The local convention agreed with him, as indicated by its action on the resolution.
The resolutions against Mayhew will be presented to the convention of the State Dental Association at San Francisco next week, also to Gov. Gillett, who has the power of removing the member of any State board for cause. Mayhew's term as a member of the board will expire in September of next year.
The Southern California association hardly had got started on the first day of its local session, which is to last three days, at the College of Dentistry, when Dr. Robinson got into action.
Robinson was one of the three labor lists named by the State and Southern California dental associations to look after all legislation affecting the profession. The course of this work, the local dentist said, it was found that Mayhew is not the man for the place he holds.
The particular grievance against Mayhew is that he abused a member of the Legislature—Assemblyman Mott of Oakland—who voted against the bill introduced by Assemblyman Leeds of Los Angeles, a measure that was desired by the majority of the dentists of the State. The Leeds bill puts up the bars against many persons who are alleged to be incompetent to practice dentistry. Mott was the only member of the Assembly to vote against the measure—Robinson and other lobbyists, including Dr. Mayhew's wife, having succeeded in making its passage almost unanimous.
MAYHEW PEEVED.
But Mayhew was peeved. As president of the State Board of Examiners he seemed to feel that he had extraordinary power. So, after the session, at which Mott had voted against the bill, Mayhew proceeded to castigate the member from Oakland. It was a hard drubbing that he gave Mott, and those who were near at the time were disgusted with the way Mayhew acted. The men nearby came to blows.
The story spread quickly through the Assembly, and next day, the feeling was strong against Mayhew and the bill he had fathered. It was a bill introduced by Senator Hurd of Los Angeles, letting down the bars to a new dental therapeutics, denying the right to practice, came up in the Assembly on the following day.
What happened in respect to the Hurd bill indicated clearly the attitude of the members of the lower house toward the man who had attacked one of its number. Though on the previous day had voted for the Leeds bill turned squarely around and stood for the Hurd measure.
This was a telling defeat for the organized dentists—all the more so because they realized that one of their number, through his ill-considered action, had brought it about. Mayhew was scored roundly by his own people and he spent many uncomfortable days afterward.
Finally both bills reached the hands of the Governor, and after long consideration he signed the Leeds measure.
But the feeling against Mayhew among the members of the so-called dentists' trust could not be overcome. The first opportunity for taking an official whack at him came yesterday.
Mayhew was appointed to the office of Gov. Pardee. It is hardly believed that Gov. Gillett will remove him, though it is not so certain that the president of the board will not resign.
ROUTINE BUSINESS.
Outside of the action of the Southern California association in this matter, the day was devoted to the transaction of routine business, and to the hearing and discussion of purely technical matters. There were nineteen clinics in the afternoon, each occupying from five to ten minutes, and each bearing on some of the latest inventions or adaptations in dental science. When these had come to a conclusion the entire assemblage was invited to Casa Verdugo, there to partake informally of a Spanish dinner. This was attended by about seventy-five of the 150 members who were in attendance at the session.
Today about twenty clinics will be conducted and several short addresses will be made. In the evening the only social event of the convention will take place at Hotel Virginia, Long Beach. Dinner will be served in the banquet hall, after which an informal dance will take place. Dr. C. D. Brook, president of the Southern California Dental Association, who opened the meeting yesterday morning, will be presiding officer of the affair.
Long Beach. As toastmaster for the banquet, Dr. Brook has appointed Dr. A. H. Palmer. One of the speakers of the evening will be Assemblyman Walter Leeds, who made a brief address at the opening of the session yesterday.
The convention will close tomorrow. The programme has arranged to merely be a continuation of the discussion on current dental matters.

CONSOLIDATION.

now to act on no question of importance without consulting the committee of the cities affected. In this last matter, he said, the committee had not consulted San Pedro's committee and had not given it a voice in the conference at the noon recess yesterday. He said precedence for Wilmington might prevent success in San Pedro, and that was one thing his committee would never take chances on as long as it could be heard in protest.Chairman Jess of the Los Angeles committee explained that it was not until yesterday morning at 10 o'clock that the Law Committee, composed of City Attorney Harris, J. A. Anderson and Joseph Scott, had decided that a vote on both questions in Los Angeles on the same day, while perhaps legal, might open the door to complications, and that separate elections were advisable. The committee had had no time to consult committees from other cities, and really believed from its advice that it was in a better position to judge when the vote ought to be taken than either of the smaller cities. The Asserting that it committed an act of insolvency when it made the Harper & Reynolds Company a preferred creditor, several local concerns filed an involuntary bankruptcy petition against the Orange Blossom Mining and Milling Company yesterday in the Federal court. Among the local creditors are: Standard Oil Company, $17,51; Haas, Haruch & Co., $18,671, and D. W. Earl & Co., $18,671. A receiver is prayed for by the petitioners.

William H. Robinson, a San Diego automobile man, filed a bankruptcy petition, giving as his liabilities $300.
His assets consist of several insurance policies.TO STOP PHONE SHOCKS.
Downey telephones have been knocked galleywest by a feed wire of the Pacific Electric Railway line to Santa Ana. This feed wire runs along both sides of old Santa Gertrudes road, now better known as the Day-way-Clearwater road, and the heavy cable carried so affected the Home telephone wires, which also run along this road, that the citizens of Downey were continually getting shocks. A delegation from Downey was before the Board of Supervisors yesterday looking for relief. They asked that the railroad company be compelled to string its wire along one side of the road only, and let the telephone wire have a chance. On the report of the District Attorney that the board has a right to do this, the Supervisors issued a mandate ordering the company to separate its feed wires.

Little apparent interest was shown in the case of Orlando P. Altorre yesterday when he was taken before Judge Wellborn in the United States District Court. The young man, who is accused of taking $15,000 from the registered mail at the Los Angeles postoffice, seemed perfectly at ease when he entered a plea of not guilty.
He was represented by Attorney Fred H. Thompson. It is believed that the case may be set for hearing some time in August if the court is so disposed at that time. Mrs. M. White, mother of the defendant, sat in the courtroom while her son was arraigned.
She informed one of the court officers that she is convinced that her son is innocent. She said she would sacrifice all her property in order to clear her boy. In spite of her efforts she is unable to secure $2500 bonds for the accused.NORTHERN WATER FIGHT.
Demurrers were argued yesterday in the United States Circuit Court in the case of the Madera Water Company against the city of Madera. The complainant is seeking to have a permanent injunction granted restrain-ing the city from constructing its own water system. Attorney A. B. Mc-Cabe of San Francisco presented the argument in favor of granting the petition. The other side will be heard from today. He asserted that the municipality had entered into a binding contract with the Madera Water Company, whereby the latter was to furnish the city and private consumers with an adequate supply of water. The attorney argued that the water company had an exclusive right to the use of the streets by the terms of its franchise, and that the city had no right to start a competing company and render the plant owned by the complainant of little value.SEVERAL ARRAIGNED.
Several arraignments were made in the United States District Court yesterday. The case of Josephine Hammers, charged with making false statements in a land contest hearing, was continued for two weeks. Mrs. M.
Woods, indicted for sending alleged illegal letters through the mails, pleaded not guilty. H. Jimenez, charged with introducing liquor upon an Indian reservation, pleaded not guilty. His case will be set for hearing the 12th inst.Sherry and Egg Good for You.

Outing Clothes

Ought to be Made Just as Carefully as "Inning" Clothes

The point we make in regard to our

Hart, Schaffner &amp; Marx clothes is that you can wear them anywhere and look as you ought to look in them. Even the thin Summer stuff is just as certainly all-wool as the heavier goods; you'll find thin, all-wool goods the coolest clothes you can wear.

In thin stuff, especially, the fine tailoring and perfect designing in these goods count for more than usual. Thin stuff, if not properly made up, doesn't keep shape; soon looks stringy. None of that with our goods.

Editorial Points

There is no telling what the Kaiser could do if he had the money.

In taking a vacation we should endeavor to make the vacation as taking as possible.

A good rule is to think twice before you speak, and then forget what you were going to say.

Help, help! The worst is yet to come! Mrs. Howard Gould threatens to return to the stage.

Mr. Kipling's price is $5 a word, but we trust he doesn't expect to insist on those figures for his latest poem.

No doubt Senator Aldrich feels that he can stand the hot weather of Washington as long as any of his colleagues can.

We don't see why Howard Gould should object to paying his wife $100 a day. It is money that he didn't have to earn.

A large number of people would enjoy better health if they would open fewer bottles of medicine and use more open air.

Los Angeles was begun with eleven families 123 years ago. Thus we see that it was really a town right from the start.

If England's condition is as bad as Kipling's poem about it we must confess that it is even worse than we thought it was.

Ex-President Castro breaks into print long enough to say that he is "satisfied." That makes it unanimous; everybody else is.

Charles Warren Fairbanks will extend his European trip to include Russia. He is now in Tokio, but he is not shooting up the town.

It isn't always easy to make money in Los Angeles, 'tis true; but, Lord save us, a man shouldn't be such a hog as to want everything.

Seeing that at the age of 23 years he is the father of three children, we are free to say that Alfonso of Spain is every inch a king.

Perhaps the heat in San Francisco was started by the radiation from the feelings of Rudolph Sprengle when the Calhoun jury came in.

Marriage should be made neither a tragedy nor a farce, but a sweet old drama which ends happily after all obstacles have been overcome.

The man who loves his neighbor as himself, even when his neighbor's chickens come over and root up the garden, is a Christian who doesn't exist.

What has become of the old-fashioned mother who thought it an unpardonable sin to hang out the family wash any day except Monday?

It must worry some women a good deal to realize that they do not even know the passwords of the secret societies to which their husbands belong.

We think the Fourth of July shows poor judgment when it decides to fall on Sunday. It only serves to interrupt the noise between Saturday and Monday.

Some time men and women will cease to be immoral, for the reason that there is really not enough pleasure in it for the money and suffering it costs.

The only satisfaction in the knowledge that thousands of Americans are touring Europe in automobiles is that we know they are burning American gasoline.

Playing baseball by electric light is a new fad in the East. If the teams would do a little playing in the daylight they might come nearer their pennant aspirations.

Mr. Tat's proposition to tax only those corporations whose earnings are over $5000 a year will meet with the approval of large numbers of western mining companies.

President Campers in England hobnobbing with the labor leaders. It will be in order for him to roll up his pantaloons when he returns, for it may be raining in dear old London.

As far as we have been able to study it out from the weather reports, there isn't the size of your hand of good climate in this country at the present time anywhere outside of Los Angeles.

We think the Senate is making a great mistake by not putting a tariff on lobsters. The report from Trombone springs, trying to win back good health. It is now in order for some wicked paragrapher to suggest that the railway king is suffering from an overdose of undigested securities.

As a means of raising revenue Cuba has authorized the island. With Uncle Sam leaving the people of the island to their own resources, they find it necessary to do a little financing. The action of the Cuban Congress is fair warning that there is nothing benevolent about the plan.

The dash of Walter Wellman to the North Pole has been again indefinitely postponed. The report from Trombone springs, trying to win back good health. Unless Wellman soon makes good his claim that he is able to reach the pole by the balloon route, we shall begin to doubt his assertion that he is an Ohio man.

ANOTHER MOVE FORWARD.

Another step has been taken in the advance of the consolidation movement. The City Council, after a full discussion, has accepted the programme of the Consolidation Committee for the election. It has been found necessary to hold two elections, one for San Pedro and one for Wilmington. Of course it would be a much better arrangement if both annexations could be voted on at once; we wish that might be done; but the City Attorney advises that the only safe way, the one way to avoid leaving any legal loopholes for hostile litigants, is to vote on the San Pedro and Wilmington propositions separately. Accordingly the Council has fixed upon August 12 as the date of the San Pedro election, and probably will settle the date of the Wilmington election at today's session. The committee and the Council have pursued the right general policy. The Times has urged that every move in this campaign be made with the greatest caution, as the enemy is keen and sleepless. The Council, by taking the course now laid down, will insure victory in the San Pedro election and a result which technicalities cannot keep over in the courts. Of one thing San Pedro may be sanguine—and that is that Los Angeles will keep every pledge she has made, as she regards San Pedro's interests as her own. We hear groans of protest from Mr. Call's defunct Waterways Association and are rather surprised at that, as we had supposed that the deceased organization was buried within a decent period after its demise. Doubtless this postponed function will now be properly attended to.

CARE OF NEW ROADS.

The first stretch of good roads is about completed and will soon be turned over to the county officers for the use of the public. The pressing question of the moment is, what shall we do with these good roads, which are costing the taxpayers so much money? There are some things we know that we shall do with them. The first thing we shall do will be to use each link in the system of good roads just as fast as it is finished by the contractor. The use of this first one will be immediate, and to indulge in a little slang, it will be fierce. Every person owning a well-gaited horse or an automobile will proceed to enjoy this good highway. As each other span is completed the use may not be so heavy as on this first bit, because the novelty will gradually wear off. But in any case the use of these roads will be a heavy strain upon their lasting qualities.

Now, here comes the puzzle. What shall we do with these good roads? So far as we are aware, there is no provision at the moment for the suitable care of these costly highways. We believe that the only means of taking care of them is that provided by the old aliphid, ineffective way of district overseers with a small purse to defray the expenses. Such care will not do. Unless steps are taken at once to keep these roads in perfect condition they will deteriorate at a pace that will astonish and disappoint every person interested. Unless ample provision is made and effectively used for this purpose, in a year from now this first stretch of the good roads will be a disgrace to the county and an eyecore to all who travel upon it.

We refer to this topic so soon again because, in our opinion, the necessity of providing for the care of the highways is pressing in the extreme. We emphasize it because of our knowledge that there is no present provision for giving these roads the care they need. If the preliminary movement is made today, it will be a considerable time before anything effective can be done in this direction. How the means are to be provided for the proper care of our roads we do not know. The Board of Supervisors should take up the business at their next meeting, whenever that shall take place, and go to the root of the matter, providing adequate means, if it can possibly be done, to take care of our roads continuously, without end. Unless this is done we shall not have good roads long. The caretaking will be a matter of comparatively small expense, and unless it is done the large sum of money the roads are to cost will be practically thrown away.

PERISH PRIMARY FAD!

Unless the case pending before the Supreme Court of the State is decided in time, and as we think it should be, this city will in a few weeks be in the throes of the first alphabetical primary election ever held here. To avoid the serious complications sure to accompany the working of this almost impracticable fad, and (a more important matter) to prevent the disfranchising of many voters, we sincerely hope that the court will find time to hand down a decision before the election is on, and that the able jurists who occupy the bench will see the case as we do.

We have frequently pointed out that there is no need for the grafting of this new device on our political system, and that it will not accomplish any of the great benefits that its advocates promise for it. In a country where manhood suffrage lies at the base of political action and government there are only two things necessary to insure the best government. These are a high type of citizenship, and that citizens of this type perform their duties to the state by taking part in all elections. In the main we have an intelligent and honest body of voters. This is measurably true in all parts of the country. It is emphatically true nearly all over California and preeminently true in Southern California. There is a larger percentage of such citizens in Los Angeles than perhaps in any other city of its size. If in an election 80 or 90 per cent of the vote is got out and the electing 10 to 20 per cent is not mostly made up of those of the highest intelligence and better impulses, there is not a community in the country where things can go wrong by the choice, in such election, of men unfit to hold office. In the cases where there has been maladministration in office it has come about by good, intelligent voters neglecting their duty. Therefore there is no need of this new device.

At divers times we have argued that no device can be thought of which will insure good government absent themselves from the polls. We have particularly insisted that this direct primary will not count for a straw in preventing the election of unfit men to office. It is easier, under it, to work for the practical politician than under the former method of making nominations. These views are proven to be correct by the working of the new fad wherever tried. It has failed flatly ten times where it has partially succeeded once. It has been found to be a failure when put into practice and has been discarded.

One of the aims of the new device is to destroy party organization. That cannot be done, and should not be done. As a matter of fact, the average voter in local affairs has been independent of parties and the independence does not cause party disintegration. The new device is not capable of machine manipulation, and its advocates are the most hide-bound partisans, in all elections, of all voters. In Missouri, in Oregon, in Wisconsin, it has been seized upon by practical politicians and worked as easily as a well-constructed watch. Here in Los Angeles it is used now by as shrewd and practical a band of politicians as we have, in preparation for the next city election. Every one of them will vote for the organization candidates, and their hope is to fool those who are not "in politics" to vote for them.

But all these failures of the device to do what its advocates claim for it, and the ease with which the organizing boss may use it, are small matters compared to the injustice that follows from this new fad in disfranchising so many earnest voters. There is a plain and simple remedy. Every one of them will vote for the organization candidates, and their hope is to fool those who are not "in politics" to vote for them.

Months ago we argued that it meant practical disfranchisement of all minority parties. It cannot be otherwise. If the law is declared constitutional and continued in practice, no new party can spring into existence. The direct primary puts a club in the hands of the two dominant parties to beat the life out of all other political organizations. It is on this contention that the law is attacked in the courts, and over which a case is now before the Supreme Court, praying that an injunction be issued to forbid the holding of elections under the new fad. The Times has not one germ of the disease of socialism in its system. But it believes in fair play to all. We prefer to fight socialism and all other evils by constitutional means. We do not think it right to choke off all political debate on these lines, and believe the danger can be more successfully warded off in the end by an open, fair fight.

Los Angeles Daily Times. II
EFFECTS OF THE "NO-MEAT" CRUSADE.

We need scarcely enlarge upon this view at this time. The unfairness of the law was pointed out by us months ago. Not only the Socialists, but the Prohibitionists and other organizations, are put in jeopardy by this new device which does not reach one good end, while doing great injustice in many directions.

The whole question is of the highest importance. We feel confident that the higher courts will see how much is at stake. We have full confidence in the ability of the justices who must pass on the case before them. They are learned in constitutional law and have the rights of all citizens at heart. With this feeling we will venture the prophecy that the municipal elections in this State this year will not be held under the complicated and unjust primary election law passed at the latest session of the Legislature. It is our belief as it is our hope that in due time the court will act on the case at bar and that its action will give the coup de grace to the new fad, and mercifully save us from the agony of seeing it die by inches in years of trial in which its incompetency to do good, its power to work harm, will be apparent even to those whose mind's eye is dark.

WHEN THOUGHT GROWS RANK.

The people of today are so used to shocks they do not know when they are knocked down with a brick.

One day a college professor from his tripod dismounted to the world to the effect that godlike man has risen from the conditions of his own past and has become not merely a little lower than the angels, but has climbed the tree of knowledge to its topmost branches until he is where the gods foretold, and "is become as one" of them. In the same sentence he tells the world that man's helpmeet has been left away behind in the ascent to civilization and is still where she was when primitive woman had no more wardrobe than a fig leaf.

Another day a hoary-headed man informs us that it is all a mistake to say college boys pay too much attention to football and too little to Greek roots and fluxions. He wrings tears of pity from hearts of stone as he talks of the vicissitudes of his pupils, boys and girls "sickled o'er with the pale cast of thought," anemic from the burning of the midnight electric bulb in their fierce search for learning. Meetings by the "pale moonlight" at trying places, "to walk and mused by solitary woods," arm in arm in coeduction, interspersed with a "little flirting," is the new curriculum of this erudite New Englander.

Next comes madame, the vice-president of these United States of America, in company with the wife of the august representative of Great Britain at Washington, with a food-fad reform that sweeps all but vegetable products from our tables and turns the clock of time back to the days of old Nebuchadnezzar. Jehovah said by the mouth of the prophet, "Thinkest thou that I will eat bull's flesh, or drink the blood of goats?" So to make us godlike these ladies of "broad brows" like the women of Homer, offer us grass to eat.

On the next block we have titled women from England and millionaire dames of America shrieking in high treble that the world is out of joint and they are sent to set it right by giving women the vote. When the ladies of Belgravia and the society leaders of the softer sex on Murray Hill have the elective franchise and may sit at ease with their husbands, neglecting to use it, while their sisters in the red-light districts and the slums of Whitechapel and of the East Side swaguer up to the polls with their low-browed male mates, the Lord will be at hand to usher in the millennium and Satan will be chained, yes?

Let no man say nay to these learned Thebans from cloistered walks where the Pierian spring bubbles. Nor let any one silence the good ladies with the food fad or other new-thought device. Speech is the divine faculty which distinguishes man from the lower creation. It is by the winged word of the poet or the living word of the prophet that impact after impact has been made on our brains, and all the progress of the world has been wrought out. While the professor dilates on the savagery of wearing diamonds the Kimberly mines will still be worked and the "sparkler" will still be worn by women. The American college boy will still wear the high-browed co-ed and will present her

MUSIC AND THE STAGE

The Missing Link.
From the depths of a large mound of earth, about ten miles south of Hildesheim, a relation to the missing link. In excavating a twelfth successive stratum a large deposit of bones bearing marks of the glacial age was found. In the nineteenth stratum, at a depth of eight feet below the surface, a conglomerate of round stones cemented with chalk was discovered in which was discovered the missing link. The bones of a large animal, which is, therefore, the oldest known in the world. The stratum was undoubtedly, and long previous, from the fauna of the lower quaternary period, and more than twice as large as that of any known European. The general body of the animal was much shorter than that of a gorilla, but the neck of the bone is quite abnormal. The teeth, however, remarkable and most important evidence as to the animal's position, are human and are correct in number; they are close together and even in height. In a word, the dentition is that of a man and differs entirely from any anthropoid ape. The end of the jaw is marked with the same structure as the human tongue clearly shown. Judging by all the characteristics, the discoverer regards it as belonging to a species of the genus Homo, and therefore the oldest remains known may be, he suggests, a type from the common ancestor of both man and the anthropoid apes.

Two Antarctic Expeditions.
Plans are being perfected for two important arctic expeditions for the next future. The first is arranged in detail by Dr. W. R. Wireless Transmission.
Wireless transmission is the wildest and most mysterious aspect of applied electricity. Its utility of wireless telegraphy is well known; the wireless telephone is soon to be established; the wireless transmission of power for the purpose of lighting is being developed; the wireless electric lighting, and the list goes on. One of the most dazzling chapters in the history of modern discovery and invention. Beyond the realm of mystery which these wireless phenomena have, many strange problems yet to solve. So let the world wag on, particularly that part of it which is used to make women's tongues. Even Mrs. Belmont and the Countess of Warwick may have their fling with that highly intellectual bunch of femininity which stormed the British Parliament and broke the windows in the homes of members of the Cabinet. Bricks have been used as weapons of argument time out of mind. But few reforms have come from the conviction created by the misdeeds.

THE HIGHWAY COMMISSION.
The Highway Commission having made such an excellent start in the construction of the thoroughfares authorized by the votes of the people, it would be a pity to do anything to interfere with the prosperity of the cause or to dampen public enthusiasm. Most especially would it be a mistake to introduce any politics in the reorganization of the commission. The Times believes the Board of Supervisors should reappoint Mr. Charles D. Daggett of Pasadena, the present chairman of the commission, whose term of two years is now expiring. He has been loyally and intelligently devoted to the good-roads propaganda and has admirably performed his duties. He is just the man that taxpayers wish to see retained in the place.

HOROSCOPE.
Tuesday, June 29, 1920.
BY COBERT.
New many planets, glowing with good will, send down their fortune-telling beams to us. This 180th day is one of extraordinarily fortunate conjunctions, Venus, Mars, Uranus and Neptune all occupying benefic aspects. Venus, in trine, rules for lovers, and Neptune's potent promises well for wooers who are of faithful and lasting mind. The signs are brilliant for courtships, engagements and weddings and for domestic celebrations or entertainments. Seek amusement. Invite. Visit. Deal with dry-goods merchants, dressmakers, milliners, decorators, manicurists, florists, caterers and all others who supply personal or domestic wants. A fortunate day for all things connected with music, singing and dancing. Children are born this day under signs that augur a desire for stinging, boiling, pickling and preserving. Women and men with this birthdate are under an aspect that exercises its best power toward regularity of method and careful plans. Children are born this day under signs that augur a desire to accumulate wealth and also a tendency to live sumptuously while doing so.

UNCLE WALT, WARBLER.
BY UNCLE WALT MASON OF EMPORIA.
No more of midnight oil for me, of grammar's curves or rule of three; from mathematics I am free; the world's before me! I'm done with maps and slates and books, with pedagogues of weary looks; with French and Greek I'm done—good-bye, they used to bore me! Toward the world I turn my face; it seems to me a bully place, and I am eager for the race to fame and glory; but gray-beards come, with aspect wise, and sorrow in their brooding eyes, and tell me oft, with heavy sighs, a mournful story. They say the world is stern and grim; the dirge more frequent than the hymn; and hearts grow cold, and eyes grow dim, from life's endeavor; and weariness overwhelms the strong, and men's ambitions quiver when wrong; to reach the goal they struggle long, and gain it never. They hand me prophecies absurd; they say that when my heart is stirred to mutiny by hope deferred, I'll be a-yearning to see the good old school once more, to see the teacher at the door. Aroint! the world is all before; its lights are burning!

IT WON'T come off. Little Anna Bloom still wears that expansive smile that is the envy of all her competitors for The Times scholarships. She also wears a swastika pin, an emblem of good luck. Maybe that is why fortune continues to smile on her, but it is more than likely that it is her smiling face that keeps her at the head of the procession. She smiles like a little pansy blossom that will not wilt under the rays of the sun.

Raymond Austin, the Pasadena Fiddler, and Constance Hood of the "Milky Way" have been trying to make it so hot for the little pansy blossom that she would be bound to wilt, but all to no purpose. Anna just continues to smile and smile and gather in the subscriptions that make votes.

The Pasadena Fiddler is giving her a close race, however. He will put a crimp in Anna's smile if she fails to keep up the hot pace she has set.

FIVE MORE HAVE SCORED.

Five more contestants succeeded in getting their names in the score list yesterday, making twenty-five in line now, out of a total of fifty enrolled. The other half should hurry and get into the running before the first twenty-five get too big a start.

Charles H. Yglesias, the wonderful boy violinist, made his debut in the score list yesterday by capturing ninth place with a score of 4000. Charles has been so busy with his musical lessons and has been called on so much to play at public functions, that he has had little time to devote to the contest as yet. He is a little genius and deserves encouragement in his endeavor to get a first-class musical education.

Two years ago he won a Times scholarship; last year he tried again, but failed. This year he hopes to win another scholarship to complete his fourth year in the Los Angeles Conservatory of Music under Earl B. Valentine, who pronounces him one of his most promising pupils a few days ago.

Miss Emma Blorts scored her first points yesterday and gained twenty-third place in the score list. Otto Croft of Bagnell, Cal., has sent in a large number of nominating coupons for Miss Blorts. He will probably follow them up with votes. Miss Blorts is a very handsome orphan girl who has to make her own way in the world and who is eager to improve her education.

Miss Emma Tennyson of East Hollywood and Ruth Ferguson of West Thirty-eighth street made their initial scores and start in twenty-first and twenty-second place, respectively. Miss Elma Campbell starts as No. 25, being the tail-end for the time being.

ON THE TOBOGGAN.

The following got on the toboggan early and moved down the line: Grace Wagner, from fourth to sixth place; Dorothy Scherer, from fifth to seventh; Murray Royal, from ninth to eleventh; Ernest Furber, tenth to thirteenth; Lila Spencer, from No. 11 to No. 14; Lillian Waite, 13 to 15; Florence Fidler, 14 to 16; David Boardman, 15 to 17; Stella Camp, 16 to 18; Teresa Camp, 17 to 19; Stanley Carnahan, 18 to 24; Fannie Swen, 19 to 21.

The Kesler brothers moved up from thirteenth to tenth place. Anna Bloom, Raymond Austin, Florence Hood and Miss Fannie Swen, Spanish War veteran's daughter, who is working for education.

Edward Waller stood pat in their former places, but all with increased scores.

VETERAN'S WORTHY DAUGHTER.

Miss Fannie Swen is a candidate who is receiving many warm endorsements. She surely is greatly admired by all who know her and ought to make a good record in the contest. The following letter, written from her father, a well-known Spanish War veteran of Los Angeles speaks for itself:

"NEWYORK, (Cal.) June 24, 1909.—(Scholarship) Manager, The Times: Dear Sir: I desire to speak a good word for a daughter of a Spanish War veteran who has entered your contest. I have known her for a good many years, and she is one who is very worthy of the support of all patriotic citizens. Her father has a fine record as a soldier in the far-off islands of the Philippines, and is member of the U.S.W.V. of Los Angeles; a past Junior Vice Commander and a faithful worker and patriotic American citizen. A most worthy father of a deserving young lady who desires to secure an education through the medium of your contest.

I desire to appeal to my many friends in the G.A.R. and U.S.W.V. and their auxiliaries to rally around the daughter of a veteran and stand by one another, as only comrades and their friends can. May they place Miss Fannie Swen of No. 116 South Hope street at the top of the list and give her a free scholarship in The Times contest of 1909, is the prayer of her father's comrades and friends. Respectfully yours, F. C. GALEBRAITH, Officer of the Guard and Past Junior Vice Commander, Roosevelt Camp, No. 5, U.S.W.V., Los Angeles, Cal.

PANNER IS NOT PEEVISH.

Although two other contestants from Pasadena got busy before he did, Emmet F. Panner of the Crown City is not peevish about it. He intends to give Raymond Austin and "Pansy Blossom" (Miss Capron) a run for the big money. For some time past he has been studying to be an editor. This institution teaches telegraphy in all its branches, wireless, commercial and railway, besides book-keeping, shorthand and other branches. It is especially for railway employment. Good positions are furnished students after graduation. Panner is 14 years old and came to Pasadena from Pittsburgh, Pa., several years ago. He is a good-looking, well-bred lad and should make a fine record in the contest.

TENDERFOOT CANDIDATE.

Miss Florence Lambert of No. 55 Harvard boulevard has lived in Los Angeles less than two months, but she has been here long enough to learn which is the best newspaper published in Southern California and to appreciate the opportunity it gives young people to improve their education. Therefore, she made haste to enter the scholarship contest and has done her best to win a piano course under a competent instructor. She was born at Pontiac, Mich., sixteen years ago, but lived in Cleveland, O., most of her life. Her father is an inspector for the Cleveland Street Railway Company, but will join his family here about July 1. He is an Odd Fellow. Florence injured one of her knees some years ago so badly that she has been lame ever since, but her lameness will not keep her from working in the contest. Owing to her recent coming to Los Angeles, she makes a "tenderfoot" candidate for a scholarship.

HOOVER-STREET HUSTLER.

A very bright little chap who wants a piano scholarship is Master Spooner of No. 557 Hoover street. He is 12 years old and has lived in Los Angeles for about seven years. He was born at Mitchell, D. C., but the Los Angeles climate suits him better than the blizzards of the land of the Dakotas. He lives at 3245 Hoover street and is very anxious to earn a scholarship. He attends the Jefferson-street school and hopes all his schoolmates will help him in the contest.

HIS BROTHER'S SUBSTITUTE.

Sydney Thurpey, aged 14, son of Rev. John W. Thurpey, rector of the Church of the Ascension, Boyle Heights, and the indomitable of Bishop Joseph H. Johnson as a contestant, but withdrew several days ago on account of starting for Canada in the near future to spend the summer. His young brother, John Kieble Thurpey, aged 10 1/2 years, will, however, take his big brother's place in the contest and hopes to be able to win a substantial prize.

MISS FIDLEY'S GREETINGS.

Miss Florence Fidler, the "Pansy Blossom," sends her regrets that she could not attend the rally at The Times office last Saturday afternoon and get acquainted with her fellow contestants. She sends greetings to all and says: "Tell Constance Hood I wish her good luck for my father is one of the present High Auditors of the Independent Order of Foresters of the High Court of Southern California. He is also Chief Ranger of Court Pomona. He is also an Elk, by the way, I am a Forester, too. Are there any other I.O.C. Sunday-school girls in the city or any Epworth League?"

It is always gratifying to contestants to have the Lankershim. John G. Gammon of Chicago and his family are tourists staying at the Nadeau. Alfred Sutor, the San Francisco capitalist, is registered at the Van Nuys. Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Chaffo of Danville, Ill., are the guests at the Angelus. Mrs. J. P. Breen of Goldfield, accompanied by her son, is staying at the Lankershim. Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Short of Fresno are at the Angelus. Mr. Short is a lawyer. Mr. W. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Gettleson of Toledo, O., are guests at the Angelus. They are on their honeymoon. E. E. Saunders of Sandusky, O., and Mrs. Saunders, his wife, are tourists staying at the Nadeau. Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Martin of Denver are registered at the Westminster. Mr. Martin is a business man. C. Leonard has gone to El Paso to look after the affairs of the Southern Western Portland Cement Company. LLOYD, Edwin, the wife of W. J. Scott, U.S.A., stationed at the Presidio, is at the Angelus with Miss Scott.

ON THE WAITING LIST.

The following have been enrolled as contestants, but failed to score on the opening day: ANDERSON, Raymond H., No. 481 E. 11th Street, Los Angeles. BARKLEY, Florence, No. 362 Pasadena avenue, East Los Angeles. BARNHART, Guy, No. 107 North Avenue 8, South Pasadena. BEAN, Emory, No. 2900 Tenth avenue, City. CHAMBERS, Hazel, No. 155 West Date street, Riverside. COLBORN, Anna, Upland, Cal. GREGORY, Roy, San Gabriel. HADLEY, Josephine, Wright, San Gabriel. HAMILTON, Percy, Colton, Cal. WILCOX, Ray, Claremont. WILSON, Helen Carolyn, Whittier. Others may enter at any time within a week or two of the close of the race. Notice will be given later when the lists will be published for those who neglected the opportunity to make an early start.

INFORMATION ON FILE.

Much other interesting information concerning the merits of various contestants of whom little mention has yet been made, is on file, the first installment of which will be published in Monday's Times. The score list will again appear in Tuesday's paper, when it is hoped many new names will appear in it.

SEEKS ENCOURAGEMENT.

Pacific Navigation Company Would Extend its Service to San Pedro. President's Letter.

The Chamber of Mines has received a letter from Luis A. Martinez of Guaymas, Sonora, president of the Compania Naviera del Pacifico (Pacific Navigation Company), which has a concession to extend its steamship service north to San Diego and desires eventually to include San Pedro. The writer asks what encouragement he can expect from Los Angeles in the way of business.

The company's steamers, the letter states, will make a cruise three times a month, connecting with the Tehuantepec railroad, and carry goods for New York and also for seven European ports of call. The Salina Cruz boats come north as far as Mazatlan and there transfer cargoes to those for Guaymas and Lower California ports, which are to call at San Diego and possibly at San Pedro. Mr. Martinez calls attention to the fact that goods from the East and from Europe, consigned to Arizona points, are sent across Tehuantepec, to American ports in the East, or in bond for Europe, is now handled by his company, via Tehuantepec.

The Captain of the Salina Cruz, tells of the shipment of the entire garbanzo crop by this route, instead of by New Orleans. This goes to Spain chiefly, and is one of the important exports of Sonora.

Mr. Martinez says he has six months in which to inaugurate the San Diego service, but hopes to do so sooner, and he is anxious to extend it to San Pedro.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN.

Formula for a Complexion Restorer Popular Among Social Leaders.

This formula for a toilet preparation which, although very simple, is probably the most popular now in use among the ladies of the upper social sets in our large cities, for the preservation of their highly prized complexion, is as follows:

Two ounces Rose Water, one ounce Cologne Spirit, four ounces Sarsaparilla, Put the Sarsaparilla in a pint of hot water (not boiling), and when dissolved and cooled add the Rose Water and Cologne Spirit and strain through a fine cloth. Any large bottle will serve as a receptacle. These ingredients are obtainable from any well stocked druggist and very easily mixed.

The results are said to be truly remarkable and commence to show after the first application, but the treatment should be continued until the rosy glow to the complexion is permanent.

MUSHET'S BEE NOW BUZZING.

Says Probably He'll Seek Mayor's Chair.

Uncle Aleck Twinkles When Denying Aspirations.

Plant's Candidacy Is Taken Cum Grano Salis.

The first gun of the municipal campaign was fired yesterday when W. C. Mushet, City Auditor, announced that he will probably be a candidate for Mayor.

The schools had hardly died away when A. M. Norton, a leader of the Democratic League, declared that its membership would be "behind" Rich.

Plant, recall member of the park board who Norton declares, will also be a candidate at the primaries.

and from the Mayor's office a "tip" was given that "Uncle Aleck" was known as "Uncle Aleck" was the "real" Mayor of Los Angeles, was the "real" Mayor of Los Angeles, was the "real" Mayor of Los Angeles.

Well, I see we have a real candidate of the "Uncle Aleck" who is not a candidate, doesn't it?" as "Why, you are."

"I am not a candidate," said he. But

Shoe Values Which Win the People Quality, Style and Square Deal Prices— A Combination Hard to Beat

When you come to this store, come prepared to see the most extraordinary shoe values ever offered in the city. Not because we have any magic channel of securing good shoes, nor that our money is any better than any other merchant's in the great Eastern markets—but, clearly because this store is established on lines which enable us to do business on very small profits. Here is a big store, centrally located, and properly equipped to sell shoes at a low rate of expense.

So far our problem has been to get shoes fast enough to meet demands. In consequence, manufacturers, anxious to dispose of big, surplus stocks, have offered us buying snaps of a size that no every-day shoe store could think of handling. These shoes are all new—of the best known makes—but go on sale tomorrow at a small fraction of their actual worth. Be in time to profit by best assortments.

Shoes for Men

BIRN BOND MUSKET'S BEE NOW BUZZING.

Probably He'll Seek Mayor's Chair.

Aleck Twinkles When Denying Aspirations.

His Candidacy Is Taken Cum Grano Salis.

there was a mischievous twinkle in his eyes which seemed to say "Not yet, but soon."

As a matter of fact, recall workers were quoting orders from the Linsner Building that there must be a line-up behind the Mayor for re-nomination, because the Mayor will not have it tried, otherwise, the recall bosses have tried to get him out of the way but have failed. So they've decided to make a fight with him, if it wipes out the good government fund, which seems probable.

Musket's statement had been fore-shadowed for several weeks as business men who are friends of the Auditor have assured him that he will have their support. As they are chiefly members of the non-partisan element, their promises have had weight. Mr. Musket said last night:

"I have seriously considered entering the race for Mayor and I believe I will be a candidate. In fact, there is every probability that I will be an active candidate. I have obtained a thorough understanding of the city government while Auditor and as there is a time coming when the municipal finances will require careful administration I feel that my experience would be of great value."

"I will be a candidate only on one condition, that is, that every corporate and private interest shall have a square deal. And I might say now that any corporation or individual that is seeking more than that had better oppose my nomination."

When the Auditor is ready to actively enter the contest, his friends will organize in the interest of his candidacy and secure the petition for the placing of his name on the primary ballot.

He is essentially a non-partisan candidate, though he has always been a Republican. As Auditor, he has been somewhat drastic in the application of the city charter and this has earned hostility in many quarters. The Linsner house are not friendly to him because he would not take their orders, but in this he was not discriminating, as he is famous for his refusal to accept compromise, or "expedients" of any kind in official business. He is very kind in official body and will enter the race, if he enters at all, as a free lance.

WILSHIRE NEXT ON PROGRAMME.

SUPERVISORS ORDER CONTRACTS ADVERTISED FOR.

Bids on Rock and Machinery Held Up Until August, Pending Word from New York—Four Bridges on Route of Long Beach Boulevard to Sea.

Opening bids for the supply of crushed rock for the $3,000,000 system of improved highways for Los Angeles county was postponed by the Board of Supervisors yesterday from July 19 to August 2. By the same resolution the bids for the rock-crushing plant to be installed by the county will be opened on the same date, instead of the 26th inst.

The reason for this action, which will be of much interest to contractors, is to enable certain bids to be received from New York. A representative of one of the bidders will start today for the East, and will telegraph the bids.

The Highway Commission, headed by Chairman Daggett, and with Chief Engineer Lester also present, attended a session of the Board of Supervisors in the afternoon and submitted the specifications for the next section of good roads to be built. Specifications were also submitted for seven concrete and fourteen metal culverts along the route.

These specifications were accepted and ordered advertised. The work will include about eight miles of Wilshire boulevard and Sunset boulevard from the western city limits to the Soldier's Home.

successful contractor bidding for the job which will be a cause for study. The work to be done includes grading to lines, clearing, grubbing, excavating, ditching and surfacing, besides building embankments. The contractor must also do all concrete and stone work, pile foundations, waterways, drains, driveways and culverts; he must clear away all rubbish, protect and move to boundary all fences, lay off macadam surface, oil seven feet of shoulder work on each side of the macadam, and leave all in a neat condition.

The route of this section of the good roads system is along Sunset boulevard from the Soldiers' Home to Preuss street, and from Preuss along Wilshire boulevard to city limits. The boulevard will be 100 feet wide, and it is intended that it will be improved eventually with park effects.

One of the delays in filing these specifications has been on account of certain rights of way along the route for widening the boulevard. Three property owners are understood to be attempting to "hold-up" the Highway Commission, but after all efforts to get a settlement, the commission has now started condemnation proceedings in the Superior Court.

Other specifications, preliminary to the construction of Long Beach boulevard, were submitted for building a reinforced concrete bridge over the Los Angeles River, and also three pile trestle bridges along the proposed route.

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

WANT TO HEAR MULHOLLAND.

Continue Campaign to Get Owens River Water.

Startling Statements Made at C. E. Convention.

Japanese Government Alive to Hawaiian Danger.

PASADENA, June 28.—E. H. Lockwood, a leader of the Citizens' Committee, testified yesterday that it is highly probable that the Japanese government is alive to the danger of the Owens River project, which is being pushed by the Council Thursday to urge a full investigation of the possibility of Pasadena getting its water from the Los Angeles aqueduct.

"We feel that the attitude of the so-called Anti-Water Committee has been clearly placed before the public," said Lockwood. "In the first place, we are not opposed to the municipal ownership of water. What we insist upon is that the city consider the question in its entirety and not simply make a move to buy the present plant, operating in Pasadena, when it is an indisputable fact that there are not adequate to the present needs of the city."

"I do not hesitate to say that if Pasadena were to buy the plant, according to the old bond issue plan, the city would be forced to pay a high price for the plant without securing a larger bond issue to acquire additional water and put the plants on an up-to-date basis. The city would be asked to claim that the plants would be able to pay for additional improvements out of their own funds."

Lockwood testified further that in the opinion of the Citizens' Committee it will be necessary to secure the amount of water necessary and a fair distribution of it. He said the Owens River is really the only sure source of supply.

"We do not believe in pumping plants when we can get gravity water at reasonable rates, and as for the business of the local plants, there is, or should be, absolutely no sentiment in the matter. If a pipe line is run into Pasadena, it can be utilized to supply all the territory in its district. We are practically assured that the Los Angeles aqueduct people will furnish water for the entire Los Angeles area when plants adjacent to Pasadena and the committee certainly favors a thorough investigation of Owens River water."

Before anything is presented to the citizens of Pasadena, the people must know by a comprehensive report exactly how much Pasadena must have for the present and for the future, where and how it is to be obtained and how it is to be distributed. This is what the Citizens' Committee insists upon, and it will not be party to any less comprehensive or incomplete investigation or action."

NO FEARS OF JAPANESE.

Rev. Moses K. Nakamura, president of the Territorial Union of Christian Endeavor societies of the Hawaiian Islands, accompanied by Peter N. Kahanakula and William Werner, presidents of island unions of the same organization, and A. S. Mahanui, sent an interesting letter to the C. E. Convention here yesterday. These four natives of Hawaii are on their way to attend the international conference of Christian Endeavor unions to be held in St. Paul, July 7-12.

Rev. Mr. Nakamura made the startling statement that he has learned from the higher class Japanese located at Hawaii that the Japanese government is planning an expedition to take possession of the Hawaiian Islands, and that under stress of anarchistic press the islands might be taken in short order," said Rev. Mr. Nakamura. "They know that they could not hold the islands, and I believe that the Japanese government will threaten parties to any such treaty, and will meet with harassment, or even death."

WANT ENSIGN FOUNTAIN.

Monrovia seeks funds from Money Left by Bostonian—El Paso, Tex., Socialists Investigate Paving.

MONROVIA, June 28.—Dr. L. M. de Brion, representing the local S.P.C.A., is at the head of a movement to secure for this city a public fountain under the provisions of the Ensign Fountain Fund of Boston. Funds in perpetuity were set aside by the late George W. Ensign to build fountains for man and beast in municipalities complying with conditions of the bequest. The application of Pasadena to the S.P.C.A. was accepted and fountains have been established in both cities. Dr. Conger and Lloyd R. Macy of Pasadena are the representatives of the Pacific Coast and report on all applications to the American Humane Society, which is the donor of the fund. The petition will be submitted to them. If granted, the fountain will be the property of the public park, the business thoroughfare of the city, and also a section of the foothill boulevard, the country highway to San Bernardino.

ARE SHOWN PAVEMENTS.

Mayor Brown and City Engineer Toed of El Paso, who are making an investigation tour before recommending a plan for new street work in that city, were the guests of Street Superintendent Monroe today. They were shown over Monrovia's twenty-five miles of asphaltic concrete pavement. J. Evans, Mrs. Evans and two children will leave next Monday for Quebec, from which point they will sail July 15 on the Empress of Britain for a three months' visit with Mrs. Evans' mother in England. The trip is made owing to the illness of Mrs. Evans, Sr.

The new McKee Block on South Myrtle avenue will be ready for occupancy July 1. It is a one-story structure of cream pressed brick, 60x90 feet.

ELKS' PLOAT.

Walter F. Dunn has been placed at the head of the Board of Trade Committee having charge of the boat for the Elks' parade in Los Angeles. The Granite Club is hastening the fitting and furnishing of its new quarters in the Elks' building, so that it may be in readiness for the coming visit of the Elks, when the club will keep open house. The furnishings, including three billiard tables, will cost about $2000.

FOOLHARDY BATHER IS CAUGHT IN TIDE-RIP.

Despite Warnings of Life Guards He Ventures Out from Shore and Is Drowned Just in Nick of Time. Preliminary Hearing of Schilling Will Be Held Today.

LONG BEACH, June 28.—Despite the warnings of the life guards today morning, a Swedish bather, who was caught in a tide rip in front of the beach house and swept out and under, died of heart failure. The preliminary hearing of Schilling will be held today.

The near victim was Alexander Darman, a stalwart young Swede, who was caught in a tide rip in front of the bath-house and swept out and under. The tide was high and the water was very rough. Darman was a bather and was caught in the tide rip. He was swept out and under. He died of heart failure. The preliminary hearing of Schilling will be held today.

CHIEF ASKS INCREASE.

Chief of Police Favours has asked a total budget for the coming year of $2,138 for police department expenses. The amount is $800 in excess of the sum asked last year.

It includes increases for police officers to these monthly salaries: Chief, $170; captain, $150; lieutenant, $120; sergeant, $90; detective, $80. There are four at $90 and four at $75.

Another appropriation is one of $600 for the purchase of a new patrol car. A police matron is asked to be in attendance at the jail when women are quarantined in the cells, and her salary is fixed at $100 per year.

It is pointed out that Pasadena, having her appropriation on the Los Angeles basis, would be a heavy burden on the city. The city is now spending less for its police department than any of its sister cities.

The budget asked by Favours has been referred to the proper committee and will be acted upon before next Monday. It will undoubtedly be granted, perhaps with a few minor cuts.

RE-TRIAL FOR ORBISON.

Dr. Thomas J. Orbison, who was found guilty of killing Conductor Arthur A. Shawmeyer on a North Loop car one night last week, and who was to have received his sentence from Justice McDonald today, may attempt to appeal his case and ask for a re-trial. Justice McDonald postponed the trial for sentence till tomorrow morning, and at that time an application for appeal may be made.

The Valley Hunt Club was the scene Saturday evening of one of the prettiest dances of the summer season, when seventy-five young men and women of the club members and their friends enjoyed a round of waltzes and two-steps from 7:30 until 9 o'clock. The dancing was watched by approving parents and interested spectators. The music was furnished by the club band and during an intermission refreshments were served at small tables in the garden. The dance was held at the club house. The dance was a success. The dance was a success.

SPENT PAST FIFTEEN YEARS IN MISER.

Remarkable Experience Related by Resident of Fennville, Mich.

"I am just emerging from fifteen years of constant misery as a result of stomach trouble," says George Bushee, of Fennville, Mich. "During all this time I have been subject to attacks of vertigo—a feeling of dizziness would suddenly attack me, and everything would seem to be spinning around. Black specks would dance before my eyes, and an all-gone feeling would come over me."

"My appetite amounted to almost nothing, and I could eat barely enough to sustain life. I also had a dry cough that was almost incessant. In my search for relief I have taken a great deal of medicine, but found nothing that would benefit me. I felt weak and worn out all the time."

"Some time ago my mother, Mrs. Matilda Bushee, was so greatly distressed by the use of Cooper's New Discovery that she was persuaded to try a bottle of the same medicine, and give it a trial. It helped me immediately, and its continued use made me feel like a new man."

"My appetite has been greatly increased and the food I eat gives me the proper nourishment, for I am stronger and better in every way. I feel more buoyant than I have for years. My cough has subsided to a minimum. I firmly believe that Cooper's New Discovery has solved the problem of my stomach trouble, and that my medicine does all that it is capable of doing."

Cooper's New Discovery is sold in Los Angeles at The Owl Drug Store.

SPENT PAST FIFTEEN YEARS IN MISER.

Remarkable Experience Related by Resident of Fennville, Mich.

"I am just emerging from fifteen years of constant misery as a result of stomach trouble," says George Bushee, of Fennville, Mich. "During all this time I have been subject to attacks of vertigo—a feeling of dizziness would suddenly attack me, and everything would seem to be spinning around. Black specks would dance before my eyes, and an all-gone feeling would come over me."

"My appetite amounted to almost nothing, and I could eat barely enough to sustain life. I also had a dry cough that was almost incessant. In my search for relief I have taken a great deal of medicine, but found nothing that would benefit me. I felt weak and worn out all the time."

"Some time ago my mother, Mrs. Matilda Bushee, was so greatly distressed by the use of Cooper's New Discovery that she was persuaded to try a bottle of the same medicine, and give it a trial. It helped me immediately, and its continued use made me feel like a new man."

"My appetite has been greatly increased and the food I eat gives me the proper nourishment, for I am stronger and better in every way. I feel more buoyant than I have for years. My cough has subsided to a minimum. I firmly believe that Cooper's New Discovery has solved the problem of my stomach trouble, and that my medicine does all that it is capable of doing."

JET BUTTONS ARE SO STYLISH

They are scarce. But they're here in plenty. That's one of the characteristics of Hamburger's buying organization. Somehow they manage to have just what you can't get at the other stores. They figure ahead—judge well—lay out orders, and the result is that the things that are in demand that you order, are there. In the ordinary stores are plentiful at Hamburger's. So with these jet buttons. They're in all styles, sizes, shapes and colors imaginable, and we haven't raised the price on account of the scarcity, either. Notice section. Male Foot.

Hamburger's
SAFEST PLACE TO TRADE

BROADWAY, EIGHTH & HILL STS.

NEW TAPESTRY COUCH COVERS 85c

The finds you ordinarily find marked $1.25. The finest lot of handsome couch covers we've had in many a day—and we've never been able to buy them before to sell at such a low price. They come in splendid Oriental colorings, good weight, fringed all around. Full 60 inches wide, and in perfectly reversible patterns. That makes them specially desirable. Just the thing to use for covering that extra folding or not bed. Second floor. Tuesday only 85c each—$1.25 value, mind you.

BIG AUTOS TO MEET TRAINS.

Local Elks Plan a Surprise for Visiting Ladies.

Want Hundreds of Machines to Join in Service.

Hotel Committee Gets Rooms for Oncoming Horde.

Five hundred automobiles, it is expected, will be at the command of the Elks during Grand Lodge week, to convey the ladies in the parties of visiting brothers from the railroad stations to their hotels. The brothers will be asked to march under escort of the fifty White Squadrons.

Harry Harrington is in charge of the Automobile Committee, and he is making elaborate preparations for the care of the thousands of women who will come with the big delegations from all over the country. Harrington has sent letters to 1500 owners of automobiles in Los Angeles, and he hopes that at least one-third of the number will agree to help out in carrying for the fair visitors.

"This is something that never has been attempted before in any city where the Elks have met," said Harrington yesterday, "and we hope to make it a huge success. First impression, you know, go a long way toward making an impression, and this automobile idea, it is believed, will hit the mark."

"I have taken charge of this end of the work, and am endeavoring to enlist the support of all owners of automobiles, no matter if they are not Elks."

ONLY LITTLE TIME NEEDED.
"The service we ask is not so great as might appear to be the case. Probably half an hour at a time is all that will be asked of any one machine."

"There are three railroad stations at which visitors will arrive. Special trains carrying Elks will reach those stations at different hours on several days. Brother Elks will be met by squads of the uniformed drill team, but the ladies of their parties, unless otherwise provided for, will be obliged to take street cars to their hotels."

"What we propose to do is to have a list of automobiles that will be available, and to have a few of these machines meet each train and convey the ladies to their hotels."

"Many business men can bring their cars down in the morning and give an hour or so of each day to this service."

COAL ON WARM NIGHT.

School Board Rejects All Bids, and Orders Specifications That Will Not Be Ambiguous.

The coal contract for the city schools was the bone of contention over which the Board of Education got into its public wrangle, at its meeting last night. As the order will amount to 1000 and possibly 1200 tons, the coal dealers are active in their endeavors to land the plum, and they all had representatives at the meeting.

The Purchasing Committee recommended the acceptance of the bid of the Challenge Coal Company, to furnish "Black Diamond" coal at $5.20 per ton; a minority report was presented recommending the acceptance of the bid of the Stone Cañon Coal Company, at $4.75 per ton, for "New Mexico engine" coal.

The representatives of these two companies got into a rather an unseemly squabble, until finally the manager of the American Fuel Company at Gallup, N. M., told a real secret. "There really is no such thing as 'Black Diamond' coal," he said. "Some years ago there was a vein known by that name, but it is worked out long ago, and it has been years since any of it was shipped. All the coal from Gallup is now called 'Black Diamond,' though mined and shipped under several names, and the 'New Mexico engine' coal is one of them."

A motion was finally passed to reject all bids, as the specifications seem to have been ambiguous to the bidders. The coal contract is a matter of considerable importance to the city, and the board is determined to get a fair deal for the taxpayers.

The "running fight" between the board and the coal companies continues unabated. City Auditor Muesel submitted blank forms and asked for estimates for the coming year, and Mayor Alexander asked for a summary report in order that he might secure proper data for his message to the City Council. In accordance with former action of the board, they took the action that the school district is independent of the City Council, and directed the secretary to call upon the City Attorney for a written opinion as to the exact status of the matter.

The Finance Committee submitted the following valuation of the school property of the city: Common school lands, $1,100,000; buildings, $1,800,000; furniture and fixtures, $180,000; total, $3,000,000. High school lands, $250,000; buildings, $350,000; furniture and fixtures, $125,000; total, $625,000.
